FRIDAY EVENING, FEB'Y. 11.

Meteorological.

This has been a very mild month for the mid-winter month, the most so of any since 1870, and perhaps longer: Mean temperature of January, 1871, 31.13°; 1872, 30.20°; 1873, 28.14°; 1874, 39,03°; 1875, 27.70°; 1876, 41.67. Mean temperature of the five preceding Januarys, 31,24°. Full ten degrees lower than the mean of January this year. The coldest morning was the 4th—13°. The two coldest days were the 13th and 14th, being 23° and 20° mean temperature. The three warmest days were the 2d, 28th and 18th; mean temperature 61° and 62°. Rain fell upon 7 or 8, snow only one day, and not enough to whiten the ground. Amount of rain fall only 0.77 in. The pressure of atmosphere was greater than usual also, being 29 85 in., while the yearly range is only 29.75 in. by the barometer.

The Latest.

Having made my Fall and Winter purchases of CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, TRUNKS, HATS and SATCHELS, and other goods usually found in a first class Clothing Establishment,

I would invite the public to call and inspect them before purchasing elsewhere, feeling contident that I can please the most fastidious. My purchases consist in part of the finest of American, French, Scotch and English fabrics. Boys', Youth's and Men's Overcoats, of all shades and qualities.

Suits for Boys at moderate prices. My stock is the largest and most complete of any in the city. An early call is solicited.

been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting make their success the measure of its own.

The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experience of journalism. Every year NEW FEATURES will be added.

THE GAZETTE MEANS TO BE THE NEWSPAPER OF VIRGINIA. It will furnish daily a complete account, with superfluities only lopped away, of all the current news of the world.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of Virginia.

Especial attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, especially such as relate to the development of the

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress, seldom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the peo-

In its Commercial columns the especial festure will be promptness and accuracy. The tarmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted.

The continual favors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise inits columns. Never before did it pay so well to tell
